

Contents

Introduction: Turning 'Order Qualifiers' Into 'Order Winners'

- 1 Why Develop a Networking Culture?
Why we should stop paying lip service to the importance of networking and get out and about. 12
- 2 It's a Small World...So What?
Using small world theory and the strength of weak ties to unravel the networking process and connect with the right people. 36
- 3 Hunting and Gathering, Giving and Getting
Direct your search, but don't turn your back on Lady Luck – and make certain you know the rules of the game. 60
- 4 Breaking the Ice
Getting the best from networking events, conferences and meetings. 76
- 5 A Question of Rapport
Getting along with people is fundamental to any networking strategy. 98
- 6 And Who Are You?
Build relationships by being interested – and interesting! 114

-
- 7 Hello, I Must Be Going
How you end an encounter can dictate how people remember you; business cards can do the same. 132
- 8 What's In a Name?
How to remember names and encourage others to remember ours. 144
- 9 But I Don't Know Anyone!
You'll be surprised just how many people you do know and how many places there are to meet new people. 164
- 10 Back at the Ranch
Follow up, follow up, follow up. 180
- 11 I Saw This and Thought of You
Turning one-night stands into long-term relationships demands more than a full address book. 206
- 12 Social Networking, Your Network and Your Reputation
It's what people say about you when you're not there that really counts. 224